

If Paul came to your city to establish a church, how would he train its leaders?

Look at Timothy.

Introducing the Antioch School.

Fully immersing students in the daily work of ministry—equipping them to handle its challenges and pressures—is an area where campus-based education comes up short. Patterned after Paul's training of Timothy (2 Tim. 2:2), Antioch School students develop their character while serving in ministry, equipping them with the knowledge and skill required to effectively lead Christ's church.

The training is conducted in your church, by your church leaders, and for your church, church network, or church planting team—resulting in tested and reliable leaders for your church.
